WHERE THEY PLAY TO-DAY. Richmond at Lynchburg, Resnoke at Danville, Petersburg at Norfelk,

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Norfolk, Va., June 6.—A pitchers' duel between Finneran and Hamilton, Norfolk. Va., June 6.—A pitchers due between Finneran and Hamilton, the latter having the best of the argument by a slight margin, but the former being saved by phenomenal neiding, was stopped by Umpire Crawley this afternoon at the close of the terith inning, with the score tied, 1 to 1. If was a pitchers' duel between Hamilton and Finneran. Added to a little frouble in defeating Roanoke to 2 here this afternoon, having the cloudness of the day, the two twirlers used steam effectively, and were unsittable in the pinches.

It is but fair to state that Hamilton it is but fair to state that Hamilton work on the bases, held the core down.

It is a long time since fielding such as the Tars put up, ably aided by members of the Petersburg aggregation. It is a long time since fielding such as the Tars put up, ably aided by members of the Petersburg aggregation. It is a long time since fielding such has even seen on the local diamond. BE PLAYED TO-DAY Contest Schedulod for Yesterday Postponed on Acount of Weather.

New York, June 6 -- American westher stepped in again to-day and caused a second postponement of this record match for the international polocup. The match will be played to-morrow, however, if something extraordinary does not intervene to prevent.

Prevent.

The series of postponements has created a serious situation for the British team of challengers for the cup. The army leave of Cuprain L St George Creape, who played such a remarkable game at No. 1 last Thursday, and that of Littmenant A. Noel to tie the cravat innotch on-and has oval buttonholes, which makes buttoning and unbuttoning easy,

Edwards, who hit all four goals in that game, expires on June 17. It has been understood that these officers, in order to make sure of reaching England in time, felt that they would be obliged to sail from here on Saturdsy. In that case, should the visitors win to-morrow, and square the series, they would have to go into the third match with two substitutes in the line-up—Captain J. L. Barrett and Lieutenant Palmos, neither one of whom has been regarded as strong enough for cup games, against the fast riding and hard hitting American quartet.

fast riding and hard hitting American quartet.

It was believed in polo circles tonight that should a British victory tomorrow necessitate a third match for the trophy, some way should be found of keeping Captain Cheape and Lieutenant Edwards here for the event. The definite announcement was made to-night that in the event of a British victory, that he third and deciding match for the cup would be played on Saturday. Should the Americans win, and thus retain possession of the trophy, teams of star players will meet at Meadowbrook on Friday, to fill out the three-match schedule originally arranged.

The field at Meadowbrook to-day was soft and spongy, and indications to-night were not all favorable to any speedy change from the prevailing knabe was ordered of the grounds in the fifth inning for disputing a deciding on some conditions.
